Paul's Run Receives Top Honor from U.S. News & World Report

Washington, D.C., December 21, 2017 – Paul's Run was named a Top Performing facility today by U.S. News & World Report's 2017-18 Best Nursing Homes ratings <https://health.usnews.com/best-nursing-homes/area/pa/pauls-run-395738>.

Of the more than 15,000 skilled nursing facilities that U.S. News rated, only 15% earned the Top Performing rating and status as "Best" nursing homes. The designation of Best Nursing Home is given only to those homes that demonstrate appropriate use of key services and consistent performance in quality measures.

"Finding a nursing home that meets an individual's specific needs is a difficult decision that several million families across America face each year," says Brian Kelly, editor and chief content officer of U.S. News. "The Best Nursing Homes ratings, advice and tools were designed to help navigate this important life decision and make the process a little easier."

The 2017-18 Best Nursing Homes ratings are the most comprehensive evaluation available of skilled nursing facilities in the U.S.
